FOUR MACKEREL FARES AT BOSTON.

Large rafts of mackerel still continue to school on Middle Bank, and four of the fleet secured good-sized hauls yesterday and were at T dock, Boston, this morning.

The fish are all tinkers, which is said to be a good sign, for it has been many years since the small fish have struck in and so close to port.

The arrivals are as follows:

Sch. Mystery, 12,000 tinker mackerel.

Sch. Grace Otis, 5000 tinker mackerel.

Steamer Bryda F., 24,000 fresh tinker mackerel.

MACKEREL STILL ON MIDDLE BANK

Six Excellent Fares at Boston and One at This Port.

Some Schools So Large That Seines Cannot Surround Them.

The seiners on Middle bank at present report a very large body of porgies. Some of the schools are so large no seine could reach them, while some of the small schools have mackerel mixed with them. Apparently the mackerel are still on the ground, for this morning there are half a dozen trips at Boston and one at this port, all fresh fish, while sch. Veda M. McKown, which was in Boston a few days ago with a fresh fare, came in at this port this morning to land 21 barrels of salt mackerel.

As with the previous trips the fish are mixed, though the percentage of large and mediums being small, ranging from a few hundred up to a thousand fish per trip, but the latter amount is only attained in the very large trips.

The vessels at T wharf this morning with fares are:

Sch. Charles A. Dyer, 6000 fresh mackerel.

Sch. Little Fanny, 13,500 fresh mackerel.

Steamer Bessie A., 700 fresh mackerel.

Steamer Quartette, 6000 fresh mackerel.

Steamer Bethulia, 35,000 fresh mackerel.

Steamer Philomena, 2500 fresh mackerel and 70 barrels of fresh porgies.

At this port this morning is sch. Jeffery with 3000 fresh mackerel and 100 barrels of iced porgies.

Some of the little handline dories fishing about four miles off Eastern Point yesterday report mackerel in small schools in that vicinity.

Some of the little steamers are doing extra well. Steamer Quartette, Capt. Solomon Jacobs, has been in three times in seven days and steamer Bethulia, Capt. Dick Marchant, which is at Boston, this morning, with a very large fare, 35,000 fish, is also doing a great hustle.

Small mackerel brought five and six cents each this morning, large fish selling at 36 cents and mediums at 20 cents.

The news was telephoned to Portland on Friday from the eastward that big mackerel had struck in around Boothbay. And they had really struck, too, for they were being caught almost right off the rocks. Sumner Reed of the steamer Elhier telephoned that he had seined nine barrels of mackerel of the very largest kind and that he was shipping these to Portland. These fish were four and five pounds in weight each.

Friday, the sloop Bennie, Capt. Benson, was in Portland with 2000 pounds of large mackerel. These were caught to the eastward.

The catch of salt mackerel by the fleet to date is about 6200 barrels, 2685 barrels to date in 1910, 13,932 barrels in 1909, 11,310 barrels in 1908, 4241 barrels in 1907 and 12,473 barrels in 1906, to date.

The imports of new salt mackerel at Boston to date are 2326 barrels, against 6725 barrels in 1910, 4687 barrels in 1909, 11,310 barrels in 1908, 4241 barrels in 1907 and 12,473 barrels in 1906, to date.

Fresh mackerel receipts to date are 32,614 barrels, against 18,638 barrels in 1910, 44,015 barrels in 1909, 43,357 barrels in 1908, 46,837 barrels in 1907 and 30,628 barrels in 1906, to date.

The imports of fresh mackerel at Boston to date are 3808 barrels, against 2033 barrels in 1910, 6353 barrels in 1909, 6339 barrels in 1908, 5738 barrels in 1907 and 14,802 barrels in 1906, to date.

Aug. 14.

Portland Fish Notes.

The Portland fishing steamers are finding bluebacks more plentiful at the eastward, the Pet and Elhier both being reported Friday in the vicinity of Boothbay Harbor, each with 50 barrels. They did not bring their fares into port, selling them for bait to the fishing vessels alongside.

The fishing sch. James and Esther arrived into Portland Friday to land the cook, who had been suddenly taken sick. He was sent to his home at Boston and another chef engaged.

No Squid on Quero Bank.

Capt. Joseph P. Mesquita of sch. Frances P. Mesquita, which arrived this morning from a Quero fresh shuck trip, reports finding no squid on the bank. The captain took a big squid baiting at Provincetown before sailing and so was unable to get a fine fare. He reports speaking schs. Thomas S. Gorton and John Hays Hammond and both Capt. Thomas and Spinney reported they had been unable to find any squid on the ground.

Calm Weather at Sea.

Incoming vessels report a stretch of calm weather at sea. Some of the fleet here this morning are telling of lying for hours just slatting about and without headway. Capt. Joseph P. Mesquita of sch. Frances P. Mesquita declared this morning that he had been six days getting to this port from Quero bank, which is twice as long as it would have taken under even ordinary conditions.

Fishing Fleet Movements.

Schs. Metacommet, Jennie H. Gilbert and Metamora were at Liverpool, N. S., Thursday and cleared the same day.

Schs. Cynthia, Thomas S. Gorton and Jubilee sailed from Canso, N. S., on Friday as the Lunenburg schs. Henry L. Montague arrived there the same day with 1700 quintals of salt cod.

Sch. Avalon sailed from Canso, N. S., Wednesday.

CODFISH AND HALIBUT HERE.

SOME FINE TRIPS HAVE ARRIVED SINCE SATURDAY NOON.

While fresh mackerel and swordfish are the features at T wharf today the dominating note of the arrivals at this port this morning is codfish and halibut, some very satisfactory trips of each being among the goodly list of crafts which have come in here since last report.

Sch. Catherine Burke, Capt. Augustus G. Hall, hauls for 40,000 pounds of halibut and 25,000 pounds of salt fish, while sch. Monitor, Capt. George Marr, has 30,000 pounds of halibut and a few fresh and salt fish. Both crafts are from Green bank and have not been out long. They received fine prices for their halibut, all of which is pleasing to captains and crews, as well as to Capt. Jerome McDonald who owns both crafts.

Out only 17 days since baiting, the big auxiliary knockabout sch. Benjamin A. Smith, Capt. George Hedgdon, is in this morning from Quero bank, with a fine catch, 145,000 pounds of fresh codfish, all caught on one baiting. Sch. Frances P. Mesquita, Capt. Joseph P. Mesquita, also from Quero bank, brings 110,000 pounds of fresh cod, and sch. Mary E. Cooney, Capt. Frank Cooney, from LaHave bank, has a full catch of 120,000 pounds of fresh fish. Sch. Ida S. Brooks is down from Boston with 45,000 pounds of splitting fish.

Sch. Mary T. Fallon, of the Georges halibuting fleet is among the arrivals this morning with about 10,000 pounds of halibut, the same amount of salt cod and 20,000 pounds of fresh fish, while two of the handline drifters, schs. Eugenia and Eglantine have each between 40,000 and 45,000 pounds of salt cod.

There is not much doing in the mackerel line. The steamer Jeffery brought in 3000 fresh ones in count and 100 barrels of porgies and sch. Veda M. McKown has 21 barrels of salt mackerel.

Sch. Emma F. Chase is here this morning from Southwest Harbor, Me., with a cargo of cured fish for George Perkins & Son.

Some of the shore gasoline fleet struck porgies in abundance yesterday, six of them coming in with catches of from 50 to 90 barrels each, most of which went to try out for oil. Steamer Marchant struck shad and bluebacks, bringing in about 70 barrels, 20 barrels of which were large shad. The most of her lot were put on board sch. Belbina P. Domingoes by A. Cooney & Company, for bait.

The Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company has another cargo of large Newfoundland salt herring, sch. Fannie W. Freeman, once a well-known fishing craft from this port, and now a British registered vessel, being in here from Green Bay with 850 barrels of barrelled goods of the above description.

FISH GALORE AT T WHARF.

FORTY-SIX FARES INCLUDE GROUND FISH, MACKEREL AND SWORDFISH.

T wharf has a big lot of fish this morning, for beside 22 fares of ground fish and eight traps of swordfish, the dealers have also to reckon with six fares of small mackerel, there being about 65,000 in count of the latter.

Fully 15 of the ground fish trips are of good size, ranging from 45,000 to 82,000 pounds, Sch. Richard J. Nunan, from the hake fields having the latter amount.

The swordfish catches ranged from eight to 57 fish, sch. Blanche F. Irving having the latter amount, and while the total amounted to only 289 fish, yet the price went off in company with the drop on ground fish and mackerel.

Two of the steam trawlers, the Ripple and Spray, are in this morning as usual, with good trips. These two crafts will hit the dock with another fare each before the week is out. The Foam and Crest are looked for tomorrow, which means that they also will get in two trips this week. These crafts are now running on almost as good and steady a schedule as are the fish-carrying steamers which come to Billingsgate market in London.

This morning some haddock sold at $1.25 and that was the morning's highest price for new fish. Large cod which have been unusually strong for the past two weeks, were off this morning to $3.50. A few hake sold at $2 and $2.50, but the bulk of what is in will sell at a much lower price or go to the splitters. Pollock are down also, selling at $1.60 and $1.70. Swordfish brought 8 and 9 cents per pound and small fresh mackerel 5 and 6 cents each, with the few mediums bringing 20 cents each and the large fish 10 cents over that figure.

STEAM TRAWLERS AT THIS PORT.

BRING HADDOCK FARES HERE FOR THE SPLITTERS FROM BOSTON.

The unusual sight of two of the steam trawling fleet down here at one time taking out fares of fresh fish to split is witnessed this morning. Once in a while one of these crafts comes down, but two at once is out of the usual run of things. The Spray brings 50,000 and the Ripple 60,000 pounds, mostly haddock.

Down from Boston also with splitting fish is sch. Harriett with 80,000 pounds.

Sch. Mary A. Gleason which arrived late yesterday forenoon from a salt drift trip brought 50,000 pounds of salt cod and this morning sch. Volant in the same line of business, has 45,000 pounds of salt cod.

The gasoline shore fleet found bluebacks again yesterday, five of them landing about 225 barrels, while two others had 140 barrels of porgies between them. The former went to bait fresh and to the freezer, while the latter will go for oil.

Schs. Juno and Elk, both Georges halibuters, arrived this morning with small catches, fish evidently being scarce on Georges.

From Quero Bank sch. Effie M. Prior has 110,000 pounds of fresh fish and sch. Blanche, one of the salt trawl bank fleet, is home from her first trip of the season hailing for 180,000 lbs. of salt cod. The only mackerel fare arriving during the night was 31 barrels of salted fish in sch. Saladin.
